

Privacy Policy Statement

Alloy Architectural Solutions (“Alloy” or “We”) respects your privacy and is committed to protecting it through our compliance with this policy. This policy statement applies to the Alloy website and our practices for collecting, using, maintaining, protecting, and disclosing that information. By using the website, you accept the terms of this privacy policy. If you do not agree with our policy, you should refrain from using our site.

Data Collection and Usage

Alloy collects several types of information from and about users of our website, including personally identifiable information, such as name, postal address, e-mail address, telephone number, or any other personal information. As you navigate through and interact with our Website, we may use automatic data collection technologies to collect certain information such as browser type, operating system, IP address, the URL of the previous website you visited, internet domain and host name, click-through data, your internet service provider, the times and dates you accessed specific pages on the site, and information collected through cookies.

Alloy uses information we collect about you or information you provide to us, including any personal information to do the following: present our website and its contents to you; provide you with information, products, or services that you request from us; allow you to participate in any interactive features on our website; notify you of any changes to the website or any products or services we offer or provide through the website; and for any other purpose you consent to.

Cookies

The technologies we use for automatic data collection may include cookies. A cookie is a small file placed on the hard drive of your computer. You may refuse to accept browser cookies by activating the appropriate setting on your browser. However, if you select this setting you may be unable to access certain parts of our Website. Unless you have adjusted your browser setting so that it will refuse cookies, our system will issue cookies when you direct your browser to our Website.

Use of Personal Information

As a general policy, we use such information for internal purposes only. We may contact you regarding specific offerings that may be of interest to you. We may disclose aggregated information about our users, and information that does not identify any individual, without restriction. We may also disclose your personal information to comply with any court order, law, or legal process, including to respond to any government or regulatory request or if We believe disclosure is necessary or appropriate to protect the rights, property, or safety of Alloy, our customers, or others. However, We do not sell information about you and We do not use or disclose any sensitive personal information such as race, religion, etc. without your express consent.

Security

Unfortunately, the transmission of information via the internet is not completely secure. Although we do our best to protect your personal information, we cannot guarantee the security of your personal information transmitted to our Website. Any transmission of personal information is at your own risk. We are not responsible for circumvention of any privacy settings or security measures contained on the Website.

Changes to the Privacy Policy

Alloy’s policy is to post any changes to this privacy policy on this page. If we make material changes to how we treat our users’ personal information, we will notify you through a notice on the website. You are responsible for periodically visiting our website and this privacy policy to check for any changes.
